Opening Words & Meditations

Lesley Ashmall and her producer, Jim, from BBC arrived at our church on November 1 to interview our Pastoral Care Minister Karen Bruno, along with her wife Chris concerning gay marriage in Ohio along with thoughts on the election. They were wonderful people and we all loved Lesley's Scottish accent. The radio show played November 2 on the internet site BBC Radio 5 Live. Diana Sharp from the Bellville Star was able to be present for local coverage. A few of us were also interviewed and as a group we sang hymn "Spirit of Life." Also there in support were Edward Fox, Sandy Macpherson, Cheryl Church, Gary Roth, Judy Shaffer, Chuck Rhodes, Reed Richmond and myself.

Love and Light, Ché Sahara

Lesley Ashmall from BBC Radio 5 interviews Rev. Karen Bruno about gay marriage in the United States and how the issues affects voters in the presidential election. Lesley was focused on Ohio as a key swing state in the November elections.

To the left, Lesley asked if those attending could sing a hymn and Ed led us in "Spirit of Life."

Calling to Your Attention: 2 Major Events

For Success: Your Participation Required

(1) Annual Bazaar and Bake Sale

associated with Bellville "Christmas in the Valley" is Saturday, November 10 from 9 am until 1 pm.

Remember, this rummage sale is for Winter/Holiday/Christmas themed items. Start gathering and pre-pricing items. Bring items to the church Friday. We will have the church open from 5 pm to 7 pm. We could use help getting things ready that evening. Please pre-price all items.

Food/Bake Sale

Bake sale items should be restricted to holiday cookies and candies, especially those that can be frozen until holiday events.

There are sign up sheets downstairs for Salads of all sorts, Pies, Pop and Hamburger Buns. For desserts, Pies sell the best followed by "Specialty" cakes. Food items should be dropped off in the kitchen By 9 am on Saturday (or Friday night during set-up from 5 to 7 pm).

Rummage Sale

Donated items can be dropped off Friday, Nov. 9, from 5 to 7 pm or Saturday, Nov. 10 before 9 am. Serious shoppers tend to start early and are finished before lunch! Please price your items to avoid shopper confusion! The volunteers doing the sale do not have time to price items for you.

Good sellers: CDs/DVDs/VHSs, current/classic novels & books, kids toys, board games, power tools, artwork, jewelry & sporting equipment, etc. Remember holiday items like decorations. Mugs are okay if Holiday-oriented. Any item in good working condition or original packaging that would make a good gift is okay.

Poor sellers: DO NOT BRING magazines, old textbooks & encyclopedias, items not working at all or completely trashed, and dirty cookware.

Anything not sold will be donated. If you want your item returned to you if not sold, please be there at 2 pm to pick it up.

Volunteer Opportunities - sign up sheet downstairs. On Friday we need volunteers from 5 - 7 pm to help set up in the sanctuary.

On Saturday we need a lot of volunteers! See the sign up sheet downstairs. We need servers, table cleaners, people to work the cash box for both the food sales, bake sale and rummage sale items. We especially need people to clean-up afterwards. Some volunteers will need to show up at 8 am to get ready.

Any questions? Want to volunteer, but won't be at church to sign up? Call Reed Richmond at 419-886-4365 or Bruce Kilgore at 419-886-4797.

(2) Winter Harvest collection on November 18

As we did the last three year, we will have a special collection on November 18 for needy families in the Clear Fork Valley as well as in our own church family. In addition to financial donations, we will be collecting non-perishable food items, daily essentials (paper towels, bath tissues, soap, detergent, etc.), and clothing -- especially children's clothing. Toys, games, and stuffed animals will also be collected. Thanks for your generous help and donations!

Religious Education

Remember that Children's weekly RE now begins at 9 a.m. on Sunday. Adult RE is currently meeting at 9 a.m. to discuss "A Chosen Faith." Please join us at anytime (except 2nd Sunday which is the Board meeting).

Dr. Kania's class has been rescheduled for November 15th, 7-9 pm! Dr. Walter Kania will be presenting an evening class "The Near Death Experience, Phase II, The Experience of The Light". Dr. Kania will begin the evening with comments and an introduction, followed by viewing of a DVD. After the DVD there will be time for questions and discussion.

"A Chosen Faith" adult religious education will have the final session on November 18th (Sunday 9 am). Based on feedback from our survey this summer, multiple people expressed interest in topics that were specifically UU & UU history related. Based on this interest, our next adult RE offering will be "Our American Roots: Unitarian Universalism in North America" - a video & discussion series about the history of our faith. This class will meet Sunday mornings at 9 am on November 25th, December 2, 16, 30 (no class Dec 9th due to the board meeting and no class Dec. 23rd due to our Christmas Brunch).

In early December, we will welcome Reverend Joan Van Becelaere, the District Executive from the Ohio Meadville District (OMD) to give us an overview of what the Ohio Meadville District is and what it offers us as a congregation and as individuals. More details will follow at a later date about this chance to learn more about our district. If you are interested in doing a little research on your own about the OMD, the website is: www.ohiomeadville.org

If you have any special requests for adult religious education, please contact Liz Hansen. Your feedback is the only way I know if our programs are meeting your needs! I'd love to have an entire committee organizing religious education offerings, so if you have any interest, let me know! I'm hoping that we can run Sunday morning adult religious education continuously and I will try my best to get occasional weekday evening offers also.

“This I Know” -- Seeking Speakers

On Oct. 28, Reed Richmond gave our inaugural “This I Know” talk at the Sunday service. Many of you might be familiar with the popular “This I Believe” series on National Public Radio. According to the PBS website, “During its four-year run on NPR, This I Believe engaged listeners in a discussion of the core beliefs that guide their daily lives. We heard from people of all walks of life — the very young and the very old, the famous and the previously unknown.”

The pulpit committee would like to invite UU members and friends to consider creating a talk for us to deliver at a Sunday service. You can decide when you’d like to do it, sometime in the coming year, even as soon as December. We figure that we have dozens of people who have lived thoughtful and interesting lives. We would like to hear you give a talk in which you focus on one particular thing that you have come to know so far in your life. We can all benefit from each other’s wisdom and insight.

If you have an idea for a “This I Know” talk, please contact Pulpit Committee chair Joan Richmond. Or, maybe there’s someone you’d like to hear, so nominate him or her. Then Joan can ask him or her about it. Joan can be contacted by phone at 419-886-4365 or by email at joan_richmond@me.com

Hurricane Sandy Relief Fund

As you know, Hurricane Sandy has caused wide spread devastation along the Mid Atlantic coast in New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, and as far as eastern Ohio this past week. Many people are still without basic necessities such as warm clothes, blankets, shoes, food (perishables and non-perishables), cleaning supplies, batteries/flashlights and lanterns, demolition tools (pry bars, sledge hammers, garbage bags), etc. Several of our Central East Regional Group churches are still without power, people are dealing with personal property losses due to wind and water, and it looks like this will be the costliest disaster in American history.

To aid our UU congregations and members who have been affected by this tragedy, the CERG leadership has set up the CERG UU Disaster Relief Fund to collect donations to assist fellow Unitarian Universalists with storm damage clean up and members’ immediate needs and in the rebuilding efforts.

Checks can be sent to: CERG-UUA, 100 W. 10th Street, Suite 1008, Wilmington, DE, 19801
